TASMANIAN RECORD BREAKERS ON THE NATIONAL SCENE

By 31 December 2020, 47 Tasmanian club members had broken 290 national masters swimming records*.

Topping the list is Sue Mayne with 69 national records, the earliest of which goes back to 6 July 1997 in the 400m Breaststroke.

Over the years Sue has broken records at all distances from 50m to 1,500m and in breaststroke, butterfly and individual medley events. 55 of Sue's national marks have been set while swimming for Talays MSC and 14 for her 2nd claim club, Hobart Aquatic MSC.

Sue Mayne's National records to 31 December 2020

news release

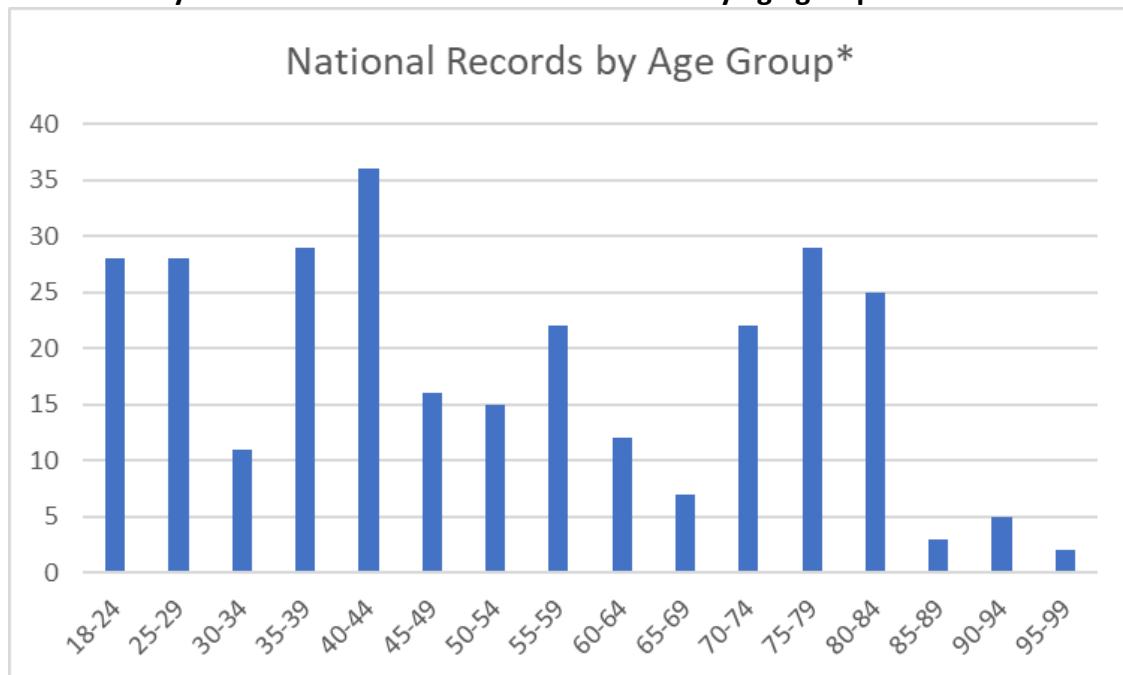

2020 was the first year since 1990 that a national record had not been broken by a member of a Tasmanian club.

Masters Swimming Tasmania managed to complete its 2020 championship program. The impacts of the pandemic had a significant effect on the ability of members to train during the year and this affected the standard of competition with the number of Tasmanian records was also significantly down on previous years.

Mywaterworld.life also looked back over the years at the record breaking by age group and by year.

There is an identifiable pattern in the distribution of records by age group in the chart below. While mywaterworld.life could resort to in tuition an examination of the underlying data will be undertaken to establish reasons, if any, for the pattern of the age group distribution of those records.
